Optica is one of East Africa's leading optician that has been providing eyewear solutions since the year 1959. The optician offers a trendy collection of eyeglasses, sunglasses, and regular and colored contact lenses. The contact lenses are available for daily and monthly disposal use. Customers can get reading glasses, swimming goggles, and eyeglasses from top brands like Cactus, Couture, and Paul Redford. Optica carries branded eyewear made with the highest-quality materials. The optician provides well-suited products for men and women alike, as well as kids.

While attending an eye care event, the spokesperson of Optica informed, "Eyes are the windows to the world, capturing memories and immersing us in blissful moments. Our reverence for the eyes drives us to provide great vision care in each of our stores across Kenya. We feature a selection of stylish frames from many brands and fit each pair of lenses in our lab. Our eye care professionals are trained to provide our customers with personalized service throughout their experience."

Optica carries a beautiful collection of sunglasses that are surely the coolest accessory. Not only do they make someone look super stylish but they can also protect their eyes against harmful sun rays. A good pair of sunglasses makes the wearer enjoy this beautiful world without sunlight sensitivity. The optician offers sunglasses to fit every budget and preference. While there are funky sunglasses for kids, there are also colorful and trendy ones for women and for men.

The spokesperson also shared, “Ours is a hub of spectacle frames for spectacle wearers. In addition to our spectacle frames, we have a range of stylish reading glasses. Most of these glasses are ready readers, meaning that our customers can just select their power, click to order, and are ready to wear them. Our glass frames are available in many attractive colors, sizes, and styles. We have frames available from brands like Oxygene, Oxford, Enzo, Kool, Optica, Mike Designs, Amegi, Biaggi and more.”

At Optica, customers can find eyeglass frames to suit their looks and face shape. These frames are available in several shapes, including round, square, rectangle, geometric, brow-line, and aviator. The optician delivers all its products to the doorstep of its customers across the country. Optica keeps its stock updated so that its customers can always explore the fresh additions to its eyewear collection. The optician delivers comprehensive optical care to people of all ages and focuses on improving people’s vision in every way.
